ACADEMIC PROBATION AND DISMISSAL FROM THE M.S. PROGRAM

To remain in good academic standing, students must maintain a 3.0 average in the distance learning M.S. program. Students who fail to maintain a 3.0 grade point average will be placed on academic probation. If a student is on academic probation for two academic quarters—that is, fails to maintain a 3.0 grade point average for two quarters at any point while they are in the program—they will be subject (1) to a formal academic review by the Director and Associate Director of Distance Learning and (2) to possible dismissal from the program. Among other factors, dismissal from the program will be based on a student's grade point average and likely prospects for graduating from the M.S. program (which requires a 3.0 grade point average).

By signing this form, I have read and understand the above statement:

__________________________________________________________________________
Signature                                      Date